“Suzanne has written a wonderfully fresh and honest reflection of life on the Camino. As in Chaucer's time we travel in the company of many sharing our daily highs and lows, figuratively and factually.”

John Brierley, bestselling guidebook, Camino de Santiago: A Practical and Mystical Manual for the Modern-Day Pilgrim, U.K.

This remarkable collection of poetry follows the seven-hundred-kilometer path in northwest Spain, along the Camino de Santiago, that the author walked with her life companion in 2016. Each poem is a footfall of experience or insight lived on the Camino.

Suzanne Doerge lived in Cincinnati in the 70's and 80's, during which she resided at the Community Friends Meeting House for three years, coordinating the Coalition for Public Sanctuary. After working in Nicaragua, she has lived in Ottawa, Canada, and is visiting the area to read from this recently published collection of poetry.
